New Business-

Went around the room and read Part one Chapter two in grapevine workbook-Titled La Vina; more knowledge about how AA came about

The SETA convention held January 19-21 will be held in Beaumont and the Grapevine will have a raffle Friday and Saturday. Grapevine will give away 2 subscriptions; one for Grapevine and one for La Vina and a book either in Spanish or English depending on the winner's preference. The winner for both nights will be announced before the 8pm speaker. Kim and Mel will have two separate entry containers for the tickets; one for English and one for La Vina; Grapevine will try to join up with Sergio. It was mentioned by Kim that La Vina has a lot of Spanish speaking Alcoholics that can not read Spanish. Patti asked if Grapevine is stationed near La Vina table? Mel said no because its usually a first come, first serve arrangement of set up with the tables. Mel will reach out to Ron and Grapevine so can get stationed next to La Vina for the weekend so we can work together and be of maximum service. Winners of raffle must be present to win. Kim will also turn to Ron to see if Grapevine can run a meeting at the convention.

Certificates and Literature- Melanie handed out two certificates for Grapevine subscriptions to each GVR at the meeting to bring to our groups along with Grapevine literature wich consisted of a Book. Each GVR is to present them to their group and ask how they can distribute them in their group.
