 - One person had 3 people or more show up from their home group.
 - Another had 2 people show up from their home group.
 - The subject wasn't clear
 - We were focused
 - Determine at the beginning of the plan if the workshop is open to the public.
 - Understood the time element
 - Feared that if we went over the agreed upon time frame, committee members would not come back.
 - Express fears with other members.
 - Loved it because it was organized and unorganized. All of it.

 - Communication wasn't so bad we couldn't get over it.
 - Got to see the creative side of people.
 - Being considerate of the 30 minute practice time was appreciated.
